New Garden Stall

With £2,779.68 in the pot, we are steadily creeping towards our target of £3,000 (when we shall call it a day). This week we have been blessed with good weather (except yesterday when we had to rescue everything from the sudden shower) and we have sold plums, runner beans, eating apples, cookers, pears, garden plants and house plants, and of course, golf balls!. As well as more of all the former, we are now into assorted bulbs (daffs, nerines, etc), lily bulbs, roots of alstroemeria, summer raspberry plants and garden plants for flowering next spring. We have sold out of the ever popular marmalade and jams, but we hope to produce more in due course. We're still appealing for all the above and for clean jam jars. Thank you everyone!
